Dear John,

Cornerstone Solutions, Inc. has been working with VertMarkets for the past 7 years.

Instead of acting as a typical advertising outlet you have truly proven yourself a partner in our efforts to market and brand Cornerstone Solutions. Instead of staying static, you continually strive to improve your effectiveness and reach in the market and develop new ways to promote your site and us. We have appreciated the fact that; as a small company we are treated the same as the larger organizations advertising on your site.

In addition to this successful marketing partnership, our sales have demonstrated the return on investment received from advertising on your site. One of our largest clients is from a lead directly attributed to VertMarkets that has resulted in several hundred thousand dollars in revenue and an ongoing consultative relationship. We also recently closed a lead for software selection that may lead to an implementation with the same potential for our bottom line. Our partnership with VertMarkets has lead to relationships that we would not have otherwise developed.

Sincerely,

Mandy Fleming
